INTERPRETATION

1. In this Constitution, except in so far as the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires –

“ACT” refers to the Associations Incorporation Act 2009 of NSW.

“BRANCH” means an internal part of the Club for members to gather for companionship and social activities.

“NATIONAL COMMITTEE” means the committee elected as provided by the constitution for the management and control of the Club and of its funds.

“NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION” means the exercise by the National Committee of the management and control of the Club and of its funds.

“SUB-COMMITTEE” is a committee delegated by the National Committee to exercise specific functions.

“BRANCH COMMITTEE” means the committee of a branch of the Club formally elected as provided by the constitution for the conduct of the affairs of the branch under the reasonable direction of the National Committee.

“BRANCH COMMITTEE BY CONSENSUS” means, where the members of a branch decide for any reason by consensus that the affairs of the branch are to be conducted on an informal committee basis, those of their number chosen by them from time to time to so conduct the affairs of the branch under the reasonable direction of the National Committee. The description “Branch Committee by Consensus” shall be read as meaning “Branch Committee” in the constitution where the context of the constitution requires.

“BRANCH PRESIDENT” means the elected president for the time being of a branch of the Club or, where the affairs of the branch are conducted by a Branch Committee by Consensus, the person chosen from time to time by the members of the branch to be the principal member of that committee.

“MEMBER” is a natural person who has been granted Life Membership or, has been approved for membership by the National Committee and has paid all monies due.

“GENERAL MEETING” means a Special General Meeting or Annual General Meeting of the members of the Club or of a branch of the Club (as the case may be or the context may require) properly convened and held in accordance with this Constitution. A Special General Meeting of a branch may only be called with the approval of the National Committee. (General Meetings should not be confused with, and do not refer to the monthly social meeting of a branch).

“EXTENDED NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETING” means the meeting conducted in conjunction with the Club’s Annual General Meeting (one of the six compulsory National Committee meetings per year) consisting of the National Committee plus invited delegates from the branches of the Club.

“SOCIAL MEETINGS” of a branch are for members to gather for companionship and social activities. Business transacted at such meetings is not in accord with this Constitution.

“CONSTITUTION” of the Club is as set out herein and as may be amended from time to time by Special Resolution of the members of the Club in accordance with this Constitution.

“FINANCIAL YEAR” of the Club and its branches is the calendar year 1st January to 31st December.

“AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS” is a requirement under the relevant Act for the Club and its branches.

“RULES” are clauses or sections as listed in this Constitution.

“PUBLICATION” refers to printed and electronic means.

“CHARITABLE PURPOSE” includes any benevolent, philanthropic or patriotic purpose.

"FUNDRAISING APPEAL" has the same meaning ascribed to it in the Charitable Fundraising Act 1991 (NSW).

"CONDUCTING" or "PARTICIPATING IN" a Fundraising Appeal has the same meaning ascribed to it in the Charitable Fundraising Act 1991 (NSW).

OBJECTS

2. The objects for which the Club is established are:

- To provide ways in which older motorcyclists can get together for companionship and mutual support.
- To show by example that motorcycling can be an enjoyable and practical activity for riders of all ages.
- To draw the attention of public and private institutions to the needs and views of older riders.

POWERS

3. The Club shall be empowered,

- a) To carry on or engage in any business or undertaking or project which may seem to the Club to be capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with or calculated directly or indirectly to further the objects for which the Club is established including operating an office and warehouse and employing staff.
- b) To communicate, affiliate, or enter into other relations, formal or informal, with other clubs, associations, or other bodies having any similar objects and to subscribe to, become a member of, or cooperate with any such clubs, associations, or other bodies in any way as may be likely to further the objects of the Club
- c) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire or in exchange or otherwise, acquire any real or personal property or rights or privileges which the Club may think necessary or convenient for the furtherance of its objects.
- d) To sell, improve, develop, exchange, lease or hire out, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the real and personal property and the rights and privileges of the Club.
- e) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects above.
- f) To provide financial or other assistance to charitable organisations and to conduct or participate in fundraising appeals for charitable purposes primarily in aid of arthritis research.

CLUB FUNDS SOURCE

4. a) The funds of the Club are to be derived from joining fees and membership subscriptions, donations, sale of Club merchandise and memorabilia, events, and subject to any resolution by the National Committee, such other sources as the National Committee determines.
- b) With the exception of any monies received pursuant to any Fundraising Appeal, all money received by the Club must be deposited as soon as practicable and without deduction to the credit of the Club's bank or other authorised deposit-taking institution account, all monies received as a result of any Fundraising Appeal are to be deposited into a separate account and disbursed in compliance with the provisions of the Charitable Fundraising Act 1991 or its successor.
- c) The Club must, as soon as practicable after receiving any money, issue an appropriate receipt

BRANCH FUNDS SOURCE

5. a) The funds of a branch may be derived from raffles, donations, newsletter fees, sale of Club or branch merchandise and any branch events authorised by the branch committee subject to any direction given by the National Committee.
- b) Branches are not entitled to demand or charge a branch membership fee.
- c) With the exception of any monies received pursuant to any Fundraising Appeal, all money received by the branch must be deposited as soon as practicable and without deduction to the credit of the branch's bank or other authorised deposit-taking institution account, all monies received as a result of any Fundraising Appeal are to be deposited into a separate account and disbursed in compliance with the provisions of the Charitable Fundraising Act 1991 or its successor.
- d) The branch must, as soon as practicable after receiving any money, issue an appropriate receipt.

CLUB FUNDS MANAGEMENT

6. a) All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments must be signed by any two members of the National Committee, or, alternatively one member of the Committee and one employee of the Club, being members or employees authorised to do so by the National Committee.
- b) Where electronic banking is used all payment transactions must be entered into the banking system by a member of the Committee or an employee of the Club authorised by the Committee, and the payment transaction then confirmed by one member of the Committee or an employee of the Club authorised to do so by the National Committee.

BRANCH FUNDS MANAGEMENT

7. a) All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments must be signed by any two members of a branch committee.
- b) Where electronic banking is used all payment transactions must be entered into the banking system by a member of the branch committee, and the payment transaction then confirmed by one other member of the branch committee.

INCOME AND PROPERTY

8. The income and property of the Club or its branches shall be applied solely towards the objects of the Club and no portion of it shall be transferred directly or indirectly in any way whatsoever by way of profit or gain to the persons who at any time are or have been members of the Club, or to any of them, or to any person claiming through any of them, provided that nothing contained herein shall prevent the payment in good faith to any member of the Club for goods supplied or services rendered by the member where such goods are supplied or such services rendered during the course of the member's usual or accepted occupation.
9. If after the winding up or dissolution of the Club there remains after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among members, but shall be given or transferred to some other club, association, or other body having an object or objects similar to the objects of the Club, to be determined by the members of the Club at or before the time of winding up or dissolution and in default thereof by such Court or Courts within the Commonwealth of Australia as may have or acquired jurisdiction in the matter.
10. If after the winding up or dissolution of a branch there remains after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among members, but shall remain the property of the Club to be dispersed at the direction of the National Committee.

MEMBERSHIP

11. A person is eligible to be a member of the Club if the person is a natural person and has attained an age of not less than forty years and,

- a) 1) holds a current motorcycle rider's licence (but subject to the exemption granted by Clause 15), or
2) being a person not otherwise qualified under sub-clause (a) 1) of this clause, has attained an age of not less than 40 years and is the spouse of a member within the meaning of the law or any commonly accepted meaning of the word spouse or is otherwise the regular companion of a member,
- b) has applied for membership to the National Secretary in such manner as may be prescribed from time to time; and
- c) has been approved for membership by the National Committee.

12. Where the National Committee determines to approve or reject an application for membership to the Club, the National Secretary shall as soon as practicable notify the applicant of that rejection and, where approved cause the person's name to be entered in the register of members.

13. Until a member has attained the age of 50 years, he or she shall be deemed to be a Junior Member, but shall, nevertheless, have full membership rights and privileges in the Club.

14. Where a member is a resident of or reasonably within the locality of a place where a branch of the Club is established, that member shall be deemed to be attached to that branch for the purposes of Clause 21 but where a member is not so resident that member shall be deemed to be an unattached member for the purposes of that clause.

15. No person to whom the requirement would otherwise apply shall be denied or lose his or her eligibility for membership by reason only that he or she no longer holds a current motorcycle rider's licence because of age, physical infirmity, or other acceptable cause provided that, in the case of a person not already a member, he or she can demonstrate a prior longstanding interest and involvement in motor cycling to the satisfaction of the National Committee.

16. A person ceases to be a member of the Club if the person –

- a) dies;
- b) resigns;
- c) is expelled from the Club;
- d) fails to pay without reasonable cause any fee, subscription, or any other amount within three months of its becoming due; or
- e) being a person previously qualified for membership under the provisions of Clause 11 a) 2), where the National Committee deems that that person is no longer qualified for membership of the Club.

17. A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a member of the Club is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person, and terminates on cessation of the person's membership.

18. a) A member of the Club may resign from membership of the Club by first giving written notice to the National Secretary of one month (or such other period as the National Committee may determine) of the member's intention to resign and, on the expiration of the period of notice, the member ceases to be a member.

- b) If a member of the Club resigns and ceases to be a member of the Club, and in every other case where a member ceases to hold membership, the National Secretary must ensure an appropriate entry is made in the register of members recording the date on which the member ceased to be a member.

REGISTER OF MEMBERS

- 19. a) The National Secretary shall establish and have maintained a register of members of the Club which shall specify at least the name and address of each person who is a member, the person's membership number, and the date on which the person became a member.
- b) The register of members shall be kept in New South Wales at the National Administration Office of the Club.
- c) The register of members to be open for inspection, free of charge, by any member in normal working hours at the National Administration Office.
- d) A member may obtain a copy of any part of the register on payment of $1.00 for each page copied. The copy must only contain the name and address of members, the membership number, and the date on which the person became a member.
- e) If a member requests that any information contained on the register about the member not be available for inspection, that information must not be made available for inspection.
- f) A member must not use information about a person obtained from the register to contact or send material to the person, other than for the purpose of sending the person a newsletter, a notice in respect of a meeting, an event, or other material relating to the Club or its branches.

FEES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

- 20. (a) An applicant for membership of the Club shall be obliged to pay the Club the fees and charges in accordance with the following:
 - (i) Together with the form of application an application fee which shall be determined by the National Committee from time to time.
 - (ii) A membership fee to cover the period of time (hereinafter referred to as the "term") and the amount of the membership fee shall be determined by the National Committee from time to time. In the event that the application shall be refused then the membership fee shall be refunded to the applicant.
- (b) The commencement of the membership term shall be determined by the National Committee.

DISCIPLINING OF MEMBERS

- 21. Where the National Committee is of the opinion that a member has persistently refused or neglected to comply with any provision of this Constitution; or has persistently or wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Club, the National Committee may, where deemed appropriate,
 - a) exercise the provisions of clauses 24 to 31, or
 - b) suspend the member from membership of the Club for a specified period, or
 - c) expel the member from the Club.
- 22. Where a Branch Committee is of the opinion that a member has persistently refused or neglected to comply with any provision of this Constitution; or has persistently or wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Club, the Branch Committee may formally request the National Committee to investigate a complaint or complaints in relation to the member.

23. The National Committee may refuse to deal with the complaint if it considers the complaint to be trivial or vexatious in nature.

24. Where a complaint against a member has been received and accepted to be of sufficient nature, the National Secretary shall advise the subject member in writing of the complaint by registered mail at the members last known address recorded in any membership register or database currently maintained by the Club, and the nature of the complaint received concerning the member. Such advice shall also contain advice to the member of the provisions of Clauses 25 to 31 and the procedures that will be followed.

25. In order to investigate a complaint or complaints against a member by a Branch Committee as specified in Clause 22, the National Committee shall appoint a tribunal of not less than three members of the Club of the National Committee's choosing, to investigate the complaint. Members chosen to form a tribunal should where possible currently serve or have previously served as Office Bearers on the National Committee. A tribunal appointed for this purpose shall meet at a time or times and at a place or places convenient to both the tribunal members and the subject member of the complaint; examine any evidence including oral testimony of witnesses and/ or the member subject of the complaint, documents including written submissions and any other evidence the tribunal considers relevant to the investigation

26. The chairperson of a tribunal appointed under Clause 25 of this Constitution shall:

- a) Contact the member subject of the complaint and
- b) arrange a mutually suitable time(s) and place(s) of the meeting(s) to examine any evidence;
- c) Cause a record to be kept in writing of all meetings and deliberations of the tribunal;
- d) Cause a written report to be furnished to the National Committee and to the subject member detailing the tribunal's findings and recommendations.
- e) Cause all records produced during the investigation process to be forwarded to the National Committee.

27. Where a member subject of a complaint refuses to cooperate or meet with a tribunal appointed to investigate a complaint in relation to that member in accordance with these rules, the tribunal may proceed ex-parte.

28. Where the member receives a report sent under Clause 26 d) of this Constitution, that member may within 21 days of receipt of the report, make a written appeal to the National Committee for their consideration, prior to the making of any resolution under Clause 21.

29. Where following deliberation on the tribunal's recommendations and any appeal by the subject member or the passing of 21 days since the subject member received the tribunal's report, the National Committee

- a) by resolution makes a ruling under Clause 21 of this Constitution to expel or suspend a member, the National Secretary shall cause a copy of the ruling to be sent by registered post within 7 days after the action is taken to the member's last known address recorded in any membership register or database currently maintained by the Club.
- b) makes any decision other than a ruling to expel or suspend the member, the National Secretary shall cause to be sent to the chairman of the tribunal which made any recommendations to the National Committee concerning the subject member and to the subject member a copy of the National Committee's decision.

30. Where a person is expelled from membership of the Club by virtue of a ruling made under Clause 21 of this Constitution, that person may not be admitted to membership of the Club at a later time.

31. Where a member is suspended from the Club for a specified time by virtue of a ruling made under Clause 21 of this Constitution, that member may not partake in any form in any functions, events or proceedings of the Club or a branch of the Club during the term of the suspension.

32. A member may appeal to the Club membership in Special General Meeting against a resolution of the National Committee under Clause 21 within 7 days after notice of the resolution is served on the member by lodging with the National Secretary a notice to that effect.

33. Where a member appeals against a resolution under Clause 21, a Special General Meeting of members will be called within 28 days to vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked:

- a) No business other than the question of the appeal is to be transacted.
- b) The National Committee and the member must be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally or in writing, or both.
- c) The meeting place will be within the area determined and at a date and time decided by the National Committee.
- d) The appeal is to be determined by a simple majority of votes cast by members of the Club.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE

34. There shall be a National Committee of management of the Club which, subject to this Constitution and to any resolution passed by the members in General Meeting shall control and manage the affairs of the Club and its funds and to perform all such acts and do all such things necessary or desirable for the proper management of the affairs of the Club.

35. The National Committee, all of whom shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Club in accordance with the rules in that regard, shall consist of:-

The Office-bearers of the Club who shall be:

- I. The National President,
- II. The National Vice-President,
- III. The National Secretary,
- IV. The National Treasurer, and
- V. Three ordinary members.

36. Each elected member of the National Committee shall, subject to this Constitution, hold office until the time of the declaration that all positions on the Committee are now vacant made at the Annual General Meeting of the Club next following the date of the member's election.

37. In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the elected membership of the National Committee, that committee may appoint a member of the Club to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed shall, subject to these rules, hold office until the time of the declaration that all positions on the committee are now vacant made at the Annual General Meeting of the Club next following the date of the appointment.

SUB-COMMITTEE

38. (1) The National Committee may, by instrument in writing, delegate to one or more sub-committees, consisting of such member or members as the National Committee thinks fit, the exercise of such of the functions of the National Committee as are specified in the instrument, other than:

- a) This power of delegation; and
- b) a function which is a duty imposed on the National Committee by the Act or by any other law.

(2) A function the exercise of which has been delegated to a sub-committee under this clause may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised from time to time by the sub-committee in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

(3) A delegation under this clause may be made subject to such conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any function, or as to time or circumstances, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.

(4) Despite any delegation under this clause, the National Committee may continue to exercise any function delegated.

(5) Any act or thing done or suffered by a sub-committee acting in the exercise of a delegation under this clause has the same force and effect as it would have if it had been done or suffered by the National Committee.

(6) The National Committee may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation under this clause.

BRANCHES

39. The establishment of a branch of the Club is at the discretion and direction of the National Committee at any place in a State or Territory of the Commonwealth of Australia or such other place or places as the National Committee may determine and shall be subject to the grant of a charter by the National Committee which shall have the power to withdraw, or place conditions on the continuation of a branch charter where it is considered for good reason to be in the best interests of the Club.

BRANCH COMMITTEE

40. There shall be a Branch Committee of each branch of the Club either formally elected or informal by consensus, that will act in accordance with this Constitution and the direction of the National Committee, and shall conduct the committee meetings at the place at which the branch is established, or at a place agreed by the majority of the committee, and shall conduct the Social Meetings of the branch at a place so designated and approved by the National Committee. Any action or decision or resolution made by a Branch Committee has no standing in relation to the management of the Club.

41. A formally elected Branch Committee shall consist of –

- I. The Branch President,
- II. The Branch Secretary, and
- III. The Branch Treasurer, or
- IV. The Branch Secretary / Treasurer, and
- V. A minimum of three ordinary members, all of whom shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting of the branch in accordance with this Constitution and at the direction of the National Committee.

42. Where members decide by consensus a branch is to have an informal committee consisting of a minimum of three members appointed from time to time, there shall be an Annual General Meeting of the branch and Clauses 92, 93 and 94 a) and c), and where appropriate 94 b) will apply.

NOMINATIONS FOR NATIONAL COMMITTEE

43. Nominations of candidates for election as office-bearers, or ordinary members of the National Committee must be made in writing, signed by two members of the Club and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of nomination); and shall be delivered to the National Secretary by midnight of the 30th November preceding the Annual General Meeting.

44. A person nominated as a candidate as an office-bearer or ordinary committee member of the Club must be a member of the Club.

45. No member shall be nominated in writing for more than one position but a member who fails to gain election to the position for which nominated in writing may at the time declare themselves to be a candidate for election to any succeeding position or positions on the Committee and shall be counted as if nominated in writing for the purposes of Clause 43.

NOMINATIONS FOR A BRANCH COMMITTEE

46. Nominations of candidates for election to a Branch Committee, shall be made in writing, signed by two members of the Club and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of nomination); and be delivered to the branch secretary no later than 28 days prior to the date and time of the branch Annual General Meeting.

47. A person nominated as a candidate as an office-bearer or ordinary committee member of a branch must be a member of the Club.

48. No member shall be nominated in writing for more than one position but a member who fails to gain election to the position for which nominated in writing may at the time declare themselves to be a candidate for election to any succeeding position or positions on the Committee and shall be counted as if nominated in writing for the purposes of Clause 46.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS TO THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE OR A BRANCH COMMITTEE

49. (a) At each Annual General Meeting of the Club or a branch of the Club the member then presiding shall declare that all positions on the committee are now vacant but such a declaration shall not be made until all the business of the meeting properly that of the retiring committee has been dealt with.

(b) Upon the declaration being made the members present shall appoint one of their number not being a candidate to conduct the election of all the members of the relevant committee as provided by this Constitution and should a ballot be required at least two scrutineers to assist, none to be a candidate for office.

(c) The President on being declared elected shall assume the chair and may continue with such business of the meeting as may be conveniently conducted during the course of, but not including, the election of the other members of the committee.

50. If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the respective committee, the candidates nominated are taken to be elected and further nominations are to be received at the Annual General Meeting.

51. If insufficient further nominations are received to fill all vacancies on a respective committee, any vacant positions remaining on the committee shall be deemed to be casual vacancies as per Clauses 59 and 60.

52. If the number of nominations received for any position exceeds the vacancy or vacancies to be filled, the ballot for office-bearers and ordinary members shall be conducted by written ballot in such usual and proper manner in accordance with this Constitution.

53. Where it has been decided a branch will elect a formal committee, the ballot for office-bearers and ordinary members of the branch committee shall be conducted by written ballot at the branch Annual General Meeting in such usual and proper manner as the National Committee may direct and in accordance with this Constitution.

NATIONAL SECRETARY

54. It shall be the duty of the National Secretary to keep minutes of:

- a) all appointments of office-bearers and members of the National Committee, and

- b) the names of the members of the National Committee present at a committee meeting or General Meeting; and
- c) all proceedings at National Committee meetings and General Meetings; and
- d) ensure minutes of proceedings at a meeting are signed by the chairperson of the meeting or the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting.

BRANCH SECRETARY

55. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of a Branch Committee to:

- a) Keep minutes of all appointments of Office-Bearers and members of the branch committee;
- b) To record the names of the members of the branch committee present at Committee Meetings, and General Meeting of the branch, and
- c) all proceedings at branch Committee Meetings, Annual General Meetings and Special General Meetings, and
- d) ensure that the minutes of proceedings at a meeting are signed by the chairman of the meeting or the chairman of the next succeeding meeting.
- e) To notify the National Administration Office within one month of any changes in the committee of the branch and to supply relevant contact details.

NATIONAL TREASURER

56. It is the duty of the National Treasurer of the Club to ensure that-

- a) all money due to the Club is collected and received and that all payments authorised by the Club are made; and
- b) that correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of the Club including full details of all receipts and expenditure connected with the activities of the National Administration of the Club.
- c) the accounts of the Club are audited.

BRANCH TREASURER

57. It is the duty of the treasurer of a branch of the Club to ensure that:

- a) all money due to the branch is collected and received and that all payments authorised by the Branch Committee are made; and
- b) correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of the branch including full details of all receipts and expenditure connected with the activities of the branch.
- c) An annual financial statement of the branch accounts for the calendar year is sent to the National Administration Office within two months of the 31st December.
- d) The accounts of the branch are audited at the direction of the National Treasurer.

CASUAL VACANCIES

58. For the purposes of these rules, a casual vacancy occurs in the office of a member of the National Committee or Branch Committee if the member:

- a) Dies;
- b) Ceases to be a member of the club;
- c) Becomes bankrupt or insolvent;
- d) Resigns office by notice given to the National Secretary;
- e) Is removed from office under Clause 60 or Clause 62;
- f) Becomes a mentally incapacitated person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health; or
- g) is absent without the consent of the Committee from all meetings of the Committee held during a period of 6 months.
- h) Is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty for which the maximum penalty on conviction is imprisonment for not less than 3 months, or
- i) is prohibited from being a director of a company under Part 2D.6 (Disqualification from managing corporations) of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

59. In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the membership of the National Committee or a formally elected Branch Committee, the respective committee may appoint a member by resolution to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed shall, subject to this Constitution, hold office until the time of the declaration that all positions on the respective committee are now vacant made at the next Annual General Meeting of the Club, or of a branch, following the date of the appointment.

REMOVAL OF NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEMBERS.

60. The members of the Club in a Special General Meeting may by resolution remove any member of the National Committee from the office of member before the expiration of the member's term of office and may by resolution appoint another person to hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the member so removed.

61. Where a member of the National Committee to whom a proposed resolution referred to in Clause 60 relates makes representations in writing, (not exceeding a reasonable length), to the Secretary or the President of the National Committee and requests that the representations be notified to members of the Club, the Secretary or the President of the National Committee may send a copy of the representations to each member of the Club or, if the representations are not so sent, the person to whom the proposed resolution relates shall be entitled to require that the representations be read out at the meeting at which the resolution is considered.

REMOVAL OF BRANCH COMMITTEE MEMBERS

62. The members of a branch in a Special General Meeting, a meeting approved by the National Committee, may by resolution remove any member of a formally elected Branch Committee from the office of member before the expiration of the member's term of office and may by resolution appoint another person to hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the member so removed.

63. Where a member of a Branch Committee to whom a proposed resolution referred to in Clause 62 makes representations in writing, (not exceeding a reasonable length), to the Secretary or the President of the Committee concerned and requests that the representations be notified to members of the branch, the Secretary or the President of the Branch Committee may send a copy of the representations to each member, and, if they are not so sent, the person to whom the proposed resolution relates shall be entitled to require that the representations be read out at the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered.

64. Where it is found the committee of a branch is not acting in the interest of the Club, or in the interest of members attached to the branch, the National Committee may remove the branch charter or may discharge the committee.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETINGS
