Hi Everyone,

Thank you for having me as your President again, the Committee was also returned with the same Members as last year. Eileen as Treasurer/Secretary. Pat, Rick, Mark and Glenda as Committee Members. Though not confirmed I hope Pat, Will, Ron and Mick will continue to fill the positions of Ride Coordinator, Quartermaster, Webmaster and Wheezy Editor. Thanks for you all your help.

While Will was OS we found ourselves without the ride leader one Sunday. Pat and I tossed a coin on the morning and I lead Will's ride to Grass Valley for lunch, nearly everyone made it. Ron took us to Spencers Brook on a very cool day for a great ride and lunch. Andy tried to lead a ride to the Ford Museum but bad weather meant he was a lone rider; Mick Katarski joined him there by car. TEC (Geoff & Jill) did a ride to Bindoon and onto York for a very nice lunch, a few of us returned via West Talbot Rd, what a great road! Gary Phillips ride was to Logue Brook Dam via Leprechaun Cafe Dawesville. I didn't get there (Dockers playing) so I hope it went well in the wet.

The morning teas have been a bit quiet over the last month but numbers are picking up again now that those members that have been gallivanting overseas have started returning.

Pat Tinnelly & Tony Collins attended the Ride Right course held in Toodyay (we saw them as we rode through town). Patrick is going to pass on some of the information at this month's Social Meeting so try and make it along.

Judith from Joondalup Branch will also be at the meeting updating us on the Moora Odyssey.

Tony Collins is leading a ride to Yarloop for a Steam day on 12th July
He needs to let cook know the estimates number of people so she can prepare enough food.
Entry to museum and roast lunch with dessert is $25
Can you let him know if you are going collinschemist@hotmail.com or 0428 487 805

There are some good rides coming up so hopefully we get some sunny Sunday's to get out there and enjoy the roads.

That's it for now.

Remember— It's not what you ride, it's your attitude that counts!

2016 Victory Magnum X-1 – First Look Review

Rider Magazine Staff
March 8, 2015

Named after the Bell X-1, the plane that broke the sound barrier with legendary test pilot Chuck Yeager at the controls, the new Magnum X-1 is the latest loud-and-proud cruiser from Victory. Based on the Magnum big-wheel bagger introduced last year, the X-1 cranks the volume with 10 speakers (up from six) and 200 watts (up from 100) of audio power. It turns up the style with Black Billet wheels (21-inch front, 16-inch rear), a smoke-tinted LED headlight and an eye-catching Electric Red over Gloss Black and Platinum paint job. Like all Victories, it's powered by the 1,731cc Freedom 106 V-twin with a 6-speed transmission and belt final drive. The Magnum X-1 ($24,499) was revealed to the public at Daytona Bike Week on Saturday night and will be in dealers in April.
